Subject : Rajiv Gandhi Jeevandayee Aarogya Yojana (Phase II)

Your application for Empanelment & gradation as per NABH Scores

Dear Sir/Madam,

We appreciate the interest shown by you to associate with the State's flagship scheme of Rajiv Gandhi Jeevandayee Aarogya Yojana which aims to alleviate impoverishment of low income families. In this context, we are happy to inform you that our empanelment committee has completed review of your hospital based on your application, Infrastructure Audit done previously by our Audit teams and NABH quality Audit done by Audit teams of DHS. 'E-application' for your hospital is complete & you are eligible for being a Network hospital.

Your hospital has been selected for empanelment with the current NABH score of '93.12%' and is placed in 'B1' grade. You will be approached by the appointed TPA with list of the specialties and the procedures along with the corresponding package rates for your information and acceptance. You are requested to kindly confirm your acceptance on your letter head in the enclosed format. You will have to sign an MOU agreement with the appointed TPA & the National Insurance Company, the Insurer for the scheme.

Provide us with the names of Medical coordinator (MCO) & Medical camp coordinator (MCCO) for your hospital, along with their contact details to facilitate us to arrange suitable training for them.

Kindly acknowledge the same.
